

MasterBatemans Bay HHH

Where sobriety in moderation is tolerated

The Egalitarian Hash

Trash Volume: LxBxH

Run Number: 163 December 2019

Hair: Infallible

Weather: Smoke haze. Cough splutter.

Afters: Outstanding and plenty alfresco by the pool. No reported skinny dipping or other atrocities.

Score: Lots.

There was fire to the north and east, smoke all over the bloody shop, roads closed in several important directions and a few other minor obstacles, but the Hash went OnOn.

Rummy may win the award for persistence in adversity after circumnavigating south eastern NSW. Fluid and Pink managed to thread the needle through about 500km of coastal fire belts.

The Chiang Mai push showed off their new habille (and no deshabelle reported).

The caterer excelled and the al fresco dining set some new standards of excellence.

Due to the deft use of a drone from his hospital bed with a stiff neck the GeeEmm was able, assisted by Doggy Bag to operate a drone, through the haze of some powerful medication and smoke to stitch together a pictorial summery of the shenanigans,

Other drone consultants include Haemorrhoid and Captain Pugwash.

Gobbles and Infallible filled in a couple of gaps left by the GeeEmm.

So here we are together again. Or not.
Haemorrhoid pre lubed.

The stand in GeeEmm prowled. Fishfinger looked on askance.

The stand in hair (following a pre navigated trail) gives useful instructions. To which someone may have listened.

Grover liked the dress standards.

And it's out there somewhere!

The runners also got there.

The walkers found the drink stop first. Pugwash and Bunz in charge.

Still prowling

Umm, what comes next
