

MasterBatemans Bay HHH

Run Number: 184 December 2021

Hair: Two Fathers

Weather: Touch and go

Afters: At the Mariners and one or two other locations depending on how late you stayed up.

Score: Run: 10 Walk: 10.1 Afters: Lots

A horde of enthusiasts straggled into the Mariners by the Sea and warmed up with a couple schooners while watching trepidatiously into the gloom for signs of a dry run. Buncha doubting cretins as if the RA would not prevail!

Meat and Easy were down from the Lake with Meat setting the tone for the day:

Kandoo (also seasonally attired) and Just Daryl joined the crowd on BlackDog and GreenFinger's dick and eyed off the spa bath while Winnie, Energizer and Freezer dispensed Limoncello and wisdom. Just Robin (apparently a long term resident of the Bay who has heretofore escaped the clutches of MBH3) was there as a special guest. Somehow Gerbils also insinuated himself into the spellbound group. Richard Gere was there too. Meanwhile down in the bar Double Fister, Tnuc, Tree Rooter, Menstrual, Gonzo Duckhead and others were making a determined start on installing Sunday's hangovers.

Trash Volume: Raucous

CountHerFeet turned up to collect hash cash while Gobbles was secreting the bucket at the carefully selected drink stop. The RA Infallible came in with his magic water repelling wand as well as Rambo and Bunz both looking splendid in seasonal attire.

The stand in hair Two Fathers made a futile attempt to gain interest in the likely direction of the run (and to make sense of his own instructions) before the pack rushed out to the trail. Fishfinger, Likealotta, Infallible and Gerbils zoomed to the front with Blue Hawaii in hot pursuit dragging Easy and Two Fathers along apace. Winnie and Energizer undertook their normal stately progress directly to the drink stop to perform custodial duties. Somewhere in there GreenFinger was dancing along the trail that led down Orient Street and onto the sparkling new bridge over placid waters which served as a suitable place for him to burst into enthusiastic season songs.

At about the halfway point the walking pack leaders took an about turn and the rest of the pack did the same led by SueEllen and JR who performed the fastest about face seen since Scomo uttered consecutive sentences, nearly bumping Pop Tart off her equilibrium and Dangles off his already unsteady clodhoppers. Soon after as the pack descended onto the western extremity of Orient Street and onto the return path the runners steamed by, now following the blue chalk round past the fish joint, past Starfish and along the Promenade baying towards the much-loved Crackatinny Park where their annual crustacea feast was set upon with Peeping Pervert leading the scoffing with Rambo, as befits senior members of the Manuka Gourmandisers' Club.

O

Then Likealotta bellowed a two minute warning for the pack to resume an orderly departure in the general direction of the good ship MV Merinda for a short and scenic and alcohol fuelled jaunt upon the Clyde.

There was a sorta circle to which hardly anyone listened, Gerbils bellowed in the background with various songsters and Just Daryl was fittingly named DUIC in recognition of his dumbcuntedessundertheinfluence (I think).

Then it was time to adjourn to the Mariners for the rest of the show and see if Santa turned up. Which he did.

And he handed out gifts of great value and some dubious attraction.

After which it all got a bit messy.

Oh...and there was a car race somewhere.

Em tasol.

But wait.....there's more.
