

MasterBatemans Bay HHH

Run Number: 188 April 2022

Hair: Winnie

Weather: RA survives again

Afters: Yep. MNR.

Score: Run: 6.0

Another production from the GinSluts

And some helpers

Well, in the middle of the longest East Coast low since about 1483 and with the surf booming in to about the front door, the RA Infallible managed to squeeze out a (nearly) rain free event. A coupla dozen keen types rolled up to this week's address of the Gin Sluts' and BlackFinger touring group, complete with helipad.

It was the red dress run when you are not having a red dress run and good taste was almost totally abandoned in the interests of obeisance to those who must be obeyed. They pack hung around waiting for the stand-in GeeEmm Two Fathers to work out

The Egalitarian Hash

Where sobriety in moderation is tolerated

Trash Volume: Annoying

in the absence of the hair - who was doing a live thing - where the phaarck they all had to go. Somewhere past the end of the drive and bear right turned out to be good enough.

Gerbils set a cracking pace for the runner, while the rest of the walking pack took up positions about 300m astern, in the manner of brown's cows.

It sorta remained that way for the rest of the (rain free) dawdle round some nether reaches of Malua Bay until the temporary JRSueEllenBlueHawaii hacienda hove into view. With a view. (Including of the start/finish.)

The pack gathered on the dick and scoffed a few (red) jelly bombs, some poisonous looking gin concoctions and assorted goodies prepared by the GinSluts.

Doggy Bag and Buns arrived at the drink stop after sensibly avoiding the stroll.

Then it was but a short meander across the beach, up the stairs, around the headland and back to party central. Eventually a circular shape emerged in the garage and some stuff went on. Charges and things:

- The hair Winnie and her consultant/slave Greenfinger (live hair) were awarded 6.
- Returnees, Two Fathers, Footie and Toez, Doggy Bag (and maybe a couple more)

- Gerbils for setting his own trail
- Footrot and Toez for excessive wear and tear on the circumnavigating truck and putting more red dots on the map than a Toyota ad.
- DUI got one for failure to identify himself at the Narooma run. (Shime!)

You will note that the RA Infallible escaped punishment, as the run occurred entirely between precipitation events, a miracle of greater merit than winning an election. He kept the circle nearly controlled in spite of Gonzo, BlackDog, DoubleFister and other cereal pests.

Awards:

Mighty Aphrodite tearfully parted herself from the champagne bell tit, now in the proud if temporary possession of Double Fister.

Mighty Aphrodite was awarded first prize (drinkable bubbles) for her appearance in red as a Handmaiden.

Two Fathers was awarded un drinkable beverage for his portrayal of a hasher from Kabul. (Look carefully in the background on the dick.)

Announcements:

- Caravan Hash at West Wyalong, June long weekend. Footie and Toez organizing.
- 2023 Nash Hash in Darwin (more to follow)
- Interhash: 2022 Goa. 2024 Queenstown NZ

The anthem was rendered magnificently, then it was wallaby ted's brother. (Food, football, beverages, etc followed.)
