

MasterBatemans Bay HHH

The Egalitarian Hash

Where sobriety in moderation is tolerated

Trash Volume: Mezzo Forte

Run Number: 4 Nov 2023

Hair: Toesucker (live)

Weather: Splendid.. well, the rain held off.

Afters: It all went very well and there was live music.

Score: +2 (Awarded by the discerning and experienced Sewer Sipper - Cooma H3)

The Eco Caravan Park at Tathra is not a bad place to base a combined run. (Apparently here is no recollection of the long ago CH3 weekend under Maid Marion as GeeEmm in which there was a general ban on hashers. Mabe the bush fire expunged the records.)

And RA Infallible made sure the rain held off enough for a run. Orgynizer (and hair and cook and just about every other bloody thing)

Toesucker, overcoming herculean odds and Footrot to even get there, made sure it sorta worked and even arranged live music for the afters. So there. The above mentioned +2 was possibly small reward. Anyway I digress.

The pack began to assemble on Friday night. Two Fathers, Doggy Bag, Infallible, Bunz, Fishfinger, Just Jude and DUI commandeered the camp kitchen for a soiree, later to be joined by Mrs Slow Cum and others from Bushrangers. A conflagration was ignited.

Saturday dawned.

Aroundabout 3 there was a mustering of troops from hashes near and far. Sewer Sipper and Twisted Sister led the Cooma push. B4 (who appears to twice B2 and might be from Sapphire) appeared in good form and might even have run a bit. The Bushrangers (see above somewhere) and Legover and Limp Dick (now resident in Lake Tyers, returning from somewhere north) were waiting enthusiastically. Dicky Knee scootered in.

The hair (and everything else) Toesucker also arrived in the nicotine, declaring a live hair (her) and leading off at a gentle pace out the front gate turning left.

The Cooma lot were so excited there were no pharken hills they broke into a trot, with Fishfinger also taking lead position as the pack strung out along the path heading in the general direction of Mogareeka (it's a place). Dicky Knee took up an early position near the front but had to sit down after acouplahundred metres. The leading bit of the pack then took a sharp esttwards turn towards the Great Eastern Firebreak and headed for the sand.

Where the pack was starting to stretch out a bit.

that musta missed the ancient and hysterical Tathra Wharf just visible through the beachside shrubbery

The wankers were back there somewhere in a bit of gloom.

Before lurching inland and heading for the drink stop located handily beside the dunnies and kids' park. Drinks were served with chips.

As they headed resolutely up the beach and past an ancient wreck (not 2F)

Before heading back in the general direction of the camp, pausing only to take in the local sculptural masterpiece.

A circle of sorts was formed. Two Fathers and Infallible (no rain - did I mention that?) sorta ran the circle with regular and informed interjections from Sewer Sipper. Toez was called in for assessment of the run. SS summarized at length and awarded it a +2.

Dicky Knee was severally punished for failing the mobility test after 100 metres. There were a few more but the dog ate my homework.

Then there was food - lots of it - and drink - ditto - and a fire - and live music of better than average quality. There was only a small discussion with the park management about the novel concept that a group of people staying in the park together might use the camp kitchen. As far as I know we are not banned.

The rest of the pack in Outer Vietnam phoned in with a rendition of the MBH3 anthem.
