The Egalitarian Hash

Where sobriety in moderation is tolerated

Trash Volume: Quite Noisy

Run Number: 194 Oct 2022

Hair: KanDoo

Weather: Miraculously dry

Afters: Circle

Score: 1.75 (distance related)

Well, after biblical amounts of rain the previous year it was sorta clear and unprecipitated. Following numerous incantations, exhortations and other magickal stuff, Infallible prevailed over Huey. As if it were ever in doubt. Hair, KanDoo stood expectorantly at the gate in Sandpiper Close as the pack trickled in.

The GeeEmm, Haemorrhoid looked tanned and fit after the Queensland pub crawl. Little Wee and Swallow parked just inside the gate and Two Fathers lined up on the grid further in following instruction from parking monitor Too Keen. Little did they know.....

Meat n Easy turned up with a cast of thousands..... well, Crusty Ring from Milton Keynes (and a MBH3 virgin), Black Tulip from Peninsula Ladies and Empty from (Royal) Peninsula (found in 1975 and still recovering) to add a bit of something to the pack. Infallible was there bathing in his own glory and accompanied by Just Helen and (young) Sophie. And the dog. To round out the reunion, Cowboy turned up for a stroll and Fishfinger and Fingerling looked dangerously fit and itching to run.

The hair waved his arms and gestured hypnotically in the direction of out. "No drink stop" ..." but not very long"...

Even so, the pack packed out along the lower reaches of Sandpiper then out into the wilds of Country Club Drive, past the geese with the Fish family battering along a good pace until they bifurcated in the search for a trail. Or plaiice.

Fingerling picked it and surged onwards with the pack string out in arrears towards the general direction of the lake and taking a turn in to the shiggy shore, being threatened by feral dogs then taking a quick lurch up an easement avoiding the dragon and back onto the road, meandering whence they came. Cowboy and Two Fathers (with his faithful and obedient granddog) as befits elder statesmen brought up a dignified rear. And so, to the slab for a pre-circle imbibe.

But wait..... what's that motor home hoving into view? And through the gate....is it B2?. "Oh, faark, STOP!" yelled someone from the crowd. Too late.... a sort of scraping noise ensues...Swallow starts swearing and feeling sick as bits of her car look likely to be torn off.

(This could go on for a while but we will draw a veil over the rest - see charges below). The circle commenced as the agitation level subsided.

At about this point, the next disaster arose. Only nine down down cups. Oh. Well, people will have to share spit or something.

Two Fathers awarded points in relation to the fill in text boxdistance covered. All the visitors were welcomed and sung to. (Sophie blocking ears)

Fishfinger and Fingerling were jointly charged with splitting the family. Or something. For some reason the next charge involved B2 (in view of his svelte form perhaps he should be renamed B1 - but I digress). At great length Two Fathers recounted the story, complete with sound effects of scruuuunchiing metal, sounds of sobbing and cussing....you get the idea.

After that it was pretty much all over red rover so we all went home to visitors etc.

Em tasol.
