

MasterBatemans Bay HHH

The Egalitarian Hash

Where sobriety in moderation is tolerated

Trash Volume: Mezzo Forte

Run Number: 202 3 June 2023

Hair: Likealotta

Weather: Fine and clear of course.

Afters: Yep. See below.

Score: 8.9 (Bonus points for 2 cemeteries and kulcha)

Ten years ago, there was a magnificent run through the hills and dales of Long Beach, set by Gobbles, where, it is faithfully and accurately reported in the archives (by Captain Pugwash), that Likealotta was a FRB along with Haemorrhoid and (this may have been a misprint) Lost Rooster. But I digress. Possibly.

In an uncanny coincidence, or not, the May 23 run was set by Likealotta. Haemorrhoid appeared near the front once or twice and even Gobbles hobbled somewhere near the front once or twice. Lost Rooster was nowhere to be seen unless you were at the Bruce Stadium near Bay 67. But I am getting ahead of myself.

So....a bunch of likely persons, many sporting newly acquired NT Nash Hash haberdashery,

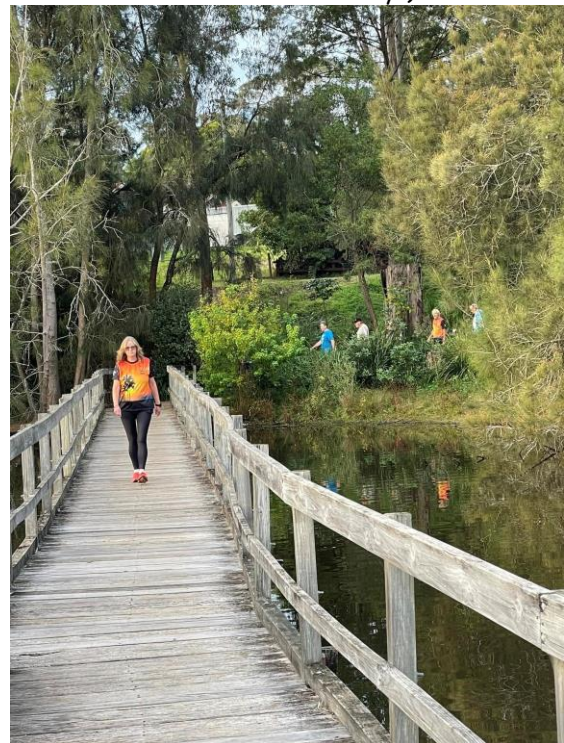

Well, a couple anyway assembled at Pacific Street in highly salubrious weather organised by the stand in RA (2F) for another of Likealotta's special runs.

Fishfinger and Two Fathers (true) led off up the hill, followed in short order by the returned GeeEmm then DUI, Black Dog, Greenfinger and Mighty Aphrodite and Meat. Winnie remained with the Hair and walking wounded CountHerFeet to attend to the important task of getting to the drink stop.

The pack went steadily towards the scout hall and then plunged into the scrub looking for false trails guided by Too Keen until a turn back which had the surprise effect of putting Cowboy in the lead. Temporarily.

Somehow Too Keen found the trail across the lake (it may have been courtesy of the bloke who said "Kim set a trail down that way")

But Fishfinger had overtaken the responsibility of FRBship, a position he held through the first cemetery and through the twists and turns of Batemans Bay heights until he took a rest break near the second cemetery where we contemplated the sad story of little Olive Knapp before plunging past the Maccas and out along the Highway stopping only to pick up litter on the way to the kulchural highlights of Sculptchas on the Clyde and Tin Man who was comparing notes on bung limbs with CHF

And other artistic marvels

Before heading for the drink stop with a view out on a pier. (I dunno what the GeeEmm is doing)

Then on to the finish and a salubrious fire for circle and all that stuff, interrupted only by DUI and his phone sex with a distant Harriette (further charges pending). Doggy Bag and Just Jude may have been charged for late arrival and the several returnees and Nash Hash showoffs got a drink and then Pugwash was serenaded by phone and it fell apart until the food was produced and fallen upon by locusts before we all retired upstairs for about 300 replays of Sweet Caroline as Relaxed gained control of the play list.

Em tasol. I think.
