

MasterBatemans Bay HHH

The Egalitarian Hash

Where sobriety in moderation is tolerated

Run Number: 219, Nov 2024

Hair: Infallible

Weather: Mild with a touch of breeze.

Afters: His place.

Score: Yep

On a mild Spring arvo a select group of about a dozen turned up for the second successive Malua meander, this time from Infallible's joint. He had set a stupendously good and slightly circuitous route of about 4km give or take that took in a few of the salubrious scenic surrounds of Malua Bay south and included elevated sea views from the drink stop. Or something: I had the spy camera out again and it got a bit blurry at times. But, to the best of my reconstructive ability it might have gone something like this.

Infallible set a trail of about 4ish km for walkers and a bit more for runners. There were none of the latter because:

Cowboy was there. Haemorrhoid has a crook knee. Too Keen has a crook shoulder. Likealotta just seems to be favouring her sciatica. Kan Doo can't. Gobbles and CHF were saving themselves for InterMekong. Biggus Dickus has an unknown affliction of the left knee. Relaxed just goes with the flow. Mighty Aphrodite is a now confirmed walker. And...I dunno about HeadShot who is new to MBH3 but as he hashes in Asia and Belconnen there could be any number of reasons. And Infallible had to take the drinks to the drink stop.

So, what did they do?

See the map.

Trash Volume: about 118

Well, they started out near the green dot and finished there. It is Infallible's place. Then the pack under Cowboy's leadership (the camera on my Google app is a bit hazy sometimes) wandered up the hill and turned left. It looked like there was a bit of a pause there as some image chased after them. Turns out it was a local bikie who was worried about Biggus Dickus taking a photo which included his daughter. After a few minutes the pack resumed its stately progress and the bikie (having been told BD takes pics of houses for ideas or something and is not of more worrying tendencies) returned to his cave. As far as I know BD is sticking to that story (if I understand his dissertation to the circle - the listening device was a bit ropy.)

From there it was a stroll down GBD with Likealotta and HeadShot in the lead, until a diversion into the Croation club and a search for trail on the numerous single tracks constructed by the local kids. This task was made more difficult by the fact that the little buggers had scuffed out trail markings, forcing a bit of scratching about the bush (see diversion on the map, it looks a bit like a 🍪 or the next finger).

According to my visual aid the confused pack milled for a while until Infallible appeared from the direction of left looking for them. Then they all headed for the drink stop near the fire shed where a quick raid of the security camera footage disclosed the pack taking a drink out of the boot of the car and Mighty Aphrodite assisting Cowboy solve the problems of the world. As is often the case with the hash it was all downhill from there until the pack returned to the green dot aka Infallible's joint for another drink.

There was a toast to Bunz who has now officially retired from the Hash.

Then the circle formed

(I dunno what MA is demonstrating but it seems to have caught attention. But I digress)

The pack welcomed HeadShot a refugee from Belconnen and some Asian hashes (I dunno if this was previously disclosed, but Double Fister made him come.) He may come back.

I have no idea about charges.

Mighty Aphrodite was awarded the Rooted and Routed Award for reasons not made clear to me and penetrating Gobbles's mind from the distance I was proved impossible.

Then there was dinner. Bottle count suggests one each (red) per person. In accordance with tradition however, there is no written record of events once the circle was declared wallaby ted's brother.

And...

That's about it.

needed

This is not just me being anal. We need to know for the pub and acquisition of other supplies. Do it now or before 1 December; that is not too much to ask. I have 24 at the moment. (But you can confirm)

Bookings can be made at your establishment of choice.

I think Santa is planning an arrival.

Hats or Xmas stuff de rigueur

Other stuff might happen.
