The Egalitarian Hash

Where sobriety in moderation is tolerated

Trash Volume: 239

Run Number: 239 July 2026

Hair: Two Fathers (with spiritual guidance)

Where: Malua Bay

Weather: Stunning

After: Illabunda

Score: 8/10 (Deservedly so, too)

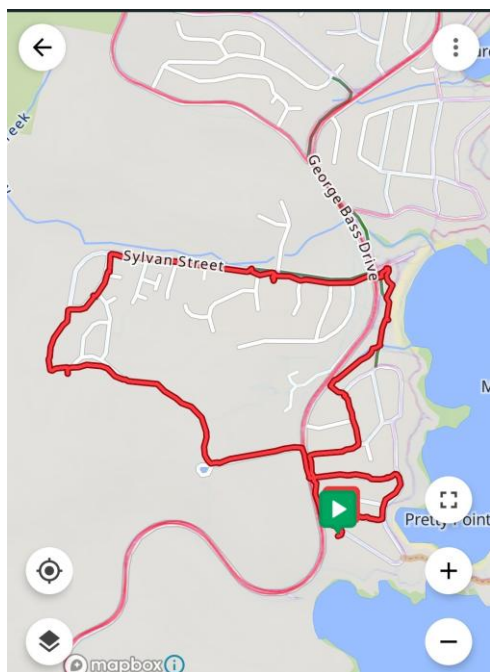

15 superb affletes turned up to enjoy the miraculously sunny arvo just itching to get out on the trail. Lost Rooster was appointed walk weporter. He matched Rooster Booster (see later) Most people got the message about onesies. (see later). Sniffer Dog was caught visiting Australia. GreenFinger was all bull.

There was a bit of chalk talk from the hair:

- Mostly chalk but some flour
- Very pitcherskew
- All pretty much flat although some flat bits are on a tilt
- Did I mention the weather?
- For those with continence issues there could be a relief point
- There is a Whale Watch spot
- Start downhill

They were off.

This where they went

It was fairly level.

5.7 km 105 m 1:02 hr

Except where it wasn't.

So the pack was led off by Meat, down the easement, past Infallible's, around the corner and up the hill by which time there were new leaders.

Somewhere near that flattish bit at about the 2km mark there was a new mark

But I don't think anyone saw Whales.

So then it was off again, round passed the dunnies and the slog along Sylvan Street, via a false trail from which the pack returned dejectedly

And where Black Dog was trying to attract attention of her skippy cousins (to no avail)

By now Meat had got a sniff of where the drink stop might be and had surged out to a long lead, followed chattily by the pack now headed by Sniffer (well ackshully GreenFinger but he is just out of the picture)

And then lo and behold and up ahead on high was the scenic drink stop with a water view.

MasterBatemans Bay HHH

Captain Pugwash and Sticky Date rang in from Hervey Bay Hash

GreenFinger and Mighty Aphrodite compared colour schemes and umm....

Before letting it all go and joining the pack in the downhill surge to the finish which looked quite a bit like the start.

There was a circle.

Food of some quality and quantity was served by Doggy Bag.

The Hair and spiritual adviser Mighty were awarded a totally deserved 8 for the trail and the weather.

Gobbles was awarded an imported Bintang as traditional homage by the well-travelled BlackDog. And a special t shirt giving guidance on traffic lights. (if not holding yourself)

DUI, Kandoo and Sniffer Dog were welcomed back.

The Roosters were awarded a sartorial award for matching fire engine red onesies. (See the drink stop photo where Gobbles is obliterating Rooster Booster).

Rooster Booster was awarded a brand new fully imported highly expensive must be returned FRB award.

The anthem wrung out.

Then it was upstairs to fire buckets, more grog, food and football.

All the Dogs were there

Em tasol.
